

The Music Archive of Monash University and the Museum of Indonesian Arts Inc present

Indonesia's Malay Arts: An Exhibition

With special reference to the Riau Islands

"Hang Tuah: Malay Culture Will Never Die/Tak Melayu Hilang Dibumi"

Bangsawan theatre: Dutch vs Riau-Lingga forces

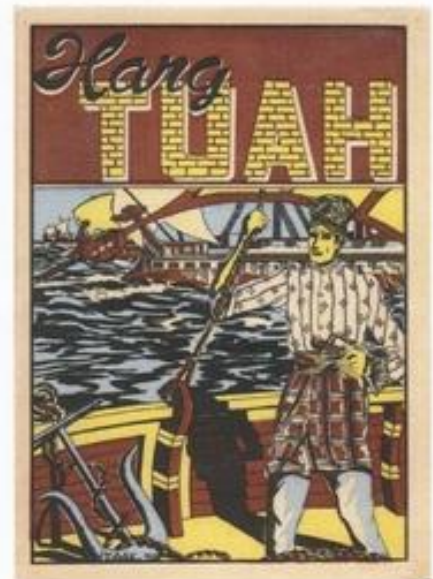

Gambus, short-necked, wooden lute with 12 strings

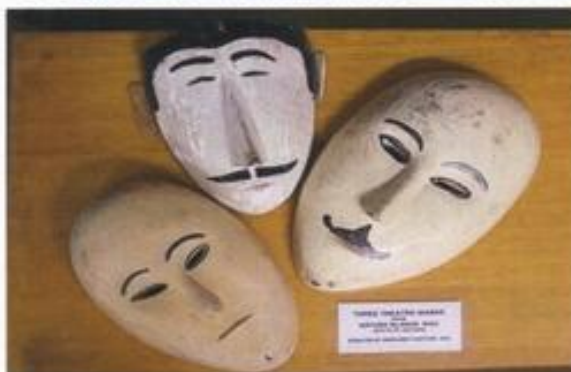

The Exhibition will be officially opened by the Ambassador of Indonesia to Australia on Wednesday 14 January 2015 at 4pm

and will include the launch of the John Noble Textile Bequest Music Auditorium, Building 68, Monash University Clayton, 14 – 31 January 2015

See <http://artsonline.monash.edu.au/music-cultures/>

1956 edition from Balai Pustaka Collection, Monash University Library

Mendu theatre masks, Natuna, Riau Islands Province.

Photos by Karen Kartomi Thomas

MONASH University
Arts